The Foundation Edgar CAYCE Centre is very pleased to hereby invite English speaking people to participate in our upcoming Annual National Conference. We are pleased and honored to have Mr Kevin J. Todeschi as our speaker.

The Conference begins Saturday morning October 27 and will come to an end by Sunday afternoon. All lectures will be in English. The lectures will be interpreted consecutively into Swedish. All lectures will be audio recorded and made available some weeks after the Conference.

The Conference place is Valhallavägen 148, Stockholm, Fältöversten, Östermalms Föreningsråd, room 6.

This year's Conference theme is: Edgar Cayce on the Akashic Records, Mastering Your Soul Growth and the Illusion of Time

About the Conference

Edgar Cayce stated that the source of his psychic information was the Akashic Records. Simply stated, these records are the universe's "super-computer system" – an interactive source of information about the life experiences of every individual. The records of the past exist as memory, the records of the present draw individuals to experiences and relationships for their personal growth, and the records of the future are constantly calculating probabilities based on each individual's choices and decisions in the present. This weekend conference will explore the Cayce information on the Akashic Records, as well as Cayce's information on mastering your personal soul growth.

The Cayce material also suggest that the growth of personal consciousness is the ultimate purpose of our existence on earth. In hundreds of readings over a period of many decades, Cayce expounded upon tools that would enable individuals to expand their personal consciousness and experience their soul self. This program will give you "hands on" experience with working with the Akashic Records, personal guidance, intuition, and exploring soul growth:

- Examine the "three tools" that Edgar Cayce said are at the heart of personal transformation.
- Explore your own Akashic Record and glimpse the past, present and future.
- Take part in a "psychic game" – an experience that will provide you with a personal answer to virtually any question imaginable.
- Participate in spiritual center meditation – one given to the original prayer group when Edgar Cayce was alive.

In addition to the above, you will examine information on the Illusion of Time – information that suggests our concept of linear time may be a misperception and that the past, present and future are much more connected than we have ever imagined.

Whether you are new to the Cayce information or a lifelong student, this is a program you won't want to miss.
